

Hauling Checklist:

Truck Inspection:

- Wash truck, inside and out
- Check tire pressure
- Make sure tires are in good condition (no cracks, uneven wear, flat spots)
- Make sure all lights are working (flashers, brake lights, running lights, high beam lights ...)
- Check engine oil, transmission oil, power steering fluid ...
- Make sure brakes are working good and are in good condition
- Look under your truck to be sure there are no leaks
- Make sure you have everything you need to change a tire
- Make sure you have extra fuses, a fire extinguisher, three roadside triangles and a tire gauge

Trailer Inspection:

- Wash trailer
- Check tire pressure
- Make sure tires are in good condition (no cracks, uneven wear, flat spots, etc.)
- All lights are working (flashers, brake lights, running lights)
- Make sure brakes are working good and are in good condition
- Make sure trailer is hooked up properly to the truck (lock safety pin and safety chain are tied to the truck)
- Make sure your electrical connection is in good condition and hooked up properly to the truck
- Make sure inside is clean and has plenty of shavings

- Put hay in feeders
- Make sure you have a good spare tire and it is easy to reach

What goes in the trailer:

- Water buckets (that are easy to reach on a long trip to water the horses)
- Hay, grain, supplements
- Saddles, bridles, working pads, show pads
- Stall curtains and wood
- Show clothes (chaps, hats, show shirts)
- Wash rack supplies (shampoo, conditioner, detangler, scraper, sponges, betadine solution, etc.)
- Grooming supplies (brushes, show sheen, fly spray, rubber bands, hoof pick, clippers, scissors, etc.)
- Medicine box (banamine, bute, dexamethasone, SMZ, needles, syringes, vet wrap, elasticon, cotton combine, rubber gloves, rubbing alcohol, poultice wraps, etc.)
- Lots of duct tape and electrical tape
- Training wraps, bell boots, knee boots, standing wraps
- Ice boots
- Saddle and bridle rack
- Box fans in the summer
- Sheets and blankets
- Pitch fork, brooms, shovel, wheelbarrel
- Extra reins, latigo, rein ties
- Tool set (hammer, screwdriver, pliers, wrenches, zip ties, nails, screws, knife, etc.)

* Courtesy of QUARTER HORSE NEWS &

